FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

PCT Introduces a One-Size Fits All Home Theater Connectivity Solution

GILBERT, AZ, USA – June 20, 2007 – Channel Master, a division of PCT International, introduces its revolutionary new line of connectors geared toward contractors and operators installing advanced A/V networks such as headends and home theaters. PCT's connector utilizes one common body for cable sizes ranging from RG6Quad down through RGB1 cable, including mini headend cable, in RCA, BNC, and F connectors. "Today operators are installing structured wiring equipment. Tomorrow, they may be wiring home theater networks to promote excellence in service and product. Our new connector portfolio enables our current customers to make this transition smoothly," reports Brandon Wilson, Executive Vice President, PCT International, Inc.
